DEDICATION

For many years Central has been served untiringly by a man whose loyalty to his institution, and faithfulness in performing his work for its advancement marks him as an example which would be worthwhile to follow.

This man is Professor S. J. Payne who came to Central as a faculty member in 1910. In appreciation of his many years of faithful and efficient service to Central and Oklahoma we, The Senior Class of 1932 respectfully dedicate this volume of The Bronze Book.

The PREFACE

In preparing this 1932 Bronze Book for publication it has been our purpose to present a panorama of college life as lived at Central in 1931-32; to recall for you the happiest part of your life—Your College Days; and to portray every phase of Central Life. Our work is finished. We present—The Bronze Book.

PRETHOUGHT

Enshrined in the hearts and memories of all Centralites is the Old North Hall—beloved emblem of Central State Teachers College. Since the founding of the institution Central college life has been centered around this building. Every year new students come to our campus in search of knowledge. Each year new faces are mingled with those familiar to us all, new friendships are formed, new organizations and activities are begun and life at Central goes on changing from year to year, but the Old North Hall remains as it has been since Central was formed.

Remembering that Central College Life is connected most closely with the campus and its buildings we have selected these familiar scenes so reminiscent of College as the theme for our book featuring, of course, that most loved of all—Our Old North Hall.

HONORABLE WILLIAM H. MURRAY

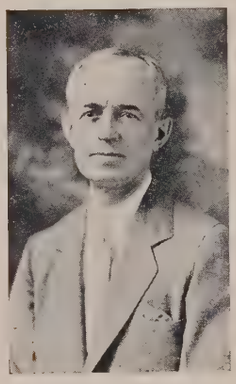

Governor of Oklahoma is well known as a maker of early state history.

When Oklahoma was being organized as a State a capable leader to head the Constitutional Convention was needed. This leader was found in William H. Murray. So satisfactory was his leadership that he was later selected to the highest position a single state can offer—that of Governor.

PRESIDENT'S GREETING

To the Students and Alumni of Central State Teachers College:

It gives me pleasure to extend to you the sincere greetings of the president, faculty, and students of Central State Teachers College. We appreciate your cooperation in making Central State Teachers College one of the outstanding institutions of its kind in the country.

We are always interested in our former students and alumni, and feel that our responsibility to serve you does not cease when you leave the campus. We follow your progress and advancement with great interest and assure you that we are ready to serve you at all times.

I am sure you will join me in extending our heartiest congratulations to the Bronze Book staff for the most excellent service rendered in producing this beautiful volume.

Sincerely and cordially yours,

MALCOLM A. BEESON, President.

DEAN OF MEN

OTTO C. LUCY, M. S.

The office of the Dean of men is a clearing house for boys' problems. Educational, vocational, moral, and social guidance is afforded the boys, and they are welcome to present their problems to the Dean of Men.

Mr. Lucy is also Registrar. The Registrar's office contains records of 44,000 students who have attended Central State Teachers College since it was established. These records are kept in up-to-date files so that they are easily accessable. The records contain all enrollment cards, catalogues, and other information which the students might desire from time to time.

DEAN OF WOMEN

HATTIE GRAY POTTER, B. A.

The office of the Dean of Women is for the benefit of girls in general. The Dean wishes to help all girls to think along their own lines of development and make contacts whereby they can realize their highest ambitions. She is a guide, advisor and helper for the girls, and she desires that they come to her with their problems.

Aside from serving as Dean of Women, Mrs. Potter is Chairman of the Department of Commerce, which has been developed into one of the outstanding departments of its kind in the state.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

L. B. RAY
M. A.

The chief objective of the Department of Education at Central is the training of teachers for effective work in the public schools of the state. The courses are designed to prepare teachers for all positions from kindergarten to the superintendency of schools.

The school's program of studies is ever increasing to meet the needs of the schools of the state. Responding to a demand for the more advanced work, the department is now offering some courses in graduate work leading to the master of arts degree.

The Department of Education and Central College are proud of the records being made by former students of this school. We earnestly desire a continuation of this good record.

FRED McCARREL

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

The Department of Mathematics offers courses that will be of value to three different types of students. The first group consists of those who need mathematics in their general scheme of education. The second group includes the students who wish to prepare themselves to be teachers of mathematics. The third group consists of those students who will need mathematics in a further study of science, engineering, and those subjects which require the use of mathematics as a tool.

The enrollment in the department has greatly increased; at the present time about one-third of the entire student body is enrolled in some type of mathematics; and the number of courses offered is constantly being increased to meet the demands.

It is the aim of the Department of Mathematics to turn out a quality of work that will be accepted by any institution.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SCIENCE

EMMA ESTILL-HARBOUR
PH. D.

The history and social science faculty in Central, comprising six members, offers work in history, government, geography, economics, and sociology. Several new courses have been added recently, and it is planned still further to broaden and intensify the work of the department. A student may elect as his major field, history, government, or social science. Extensive library facilities which are available to every student have been increased from year to year. The aim of the department is to create an interest and love for history and to develop sound social attitudes.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

The department of English Language and Literature is conducted under the following divisions: Grammar and Linguistics, English and Central Literature, Speech, Journalism, and Philosophy. A major may be pursued in Grammar and Linguistics, in Speech, and in Literature. Some courses in Linguistics and Literature are offered for graduate standing. Two years of work are offered in Speech; one year of work is offered in both journalism and Philosophy. Four hours of work in Speech, four hours in Journalism and four hours in Philosophy are required of majors in Literature.

DEPARTMENT OF MODERN LANGUAGE

GUY C. CHAMBERS
M. A.

The Department of Modern Languages, consisting of French, Spanish, and German, endeavors to give the student a practical working knowledge of the languages as well as something of the history, civilization, and literature of the people whose language he is studying.

During the past year, we have had an active French club, and have presented a French comedy. We hope to organize a similar club in German and Spanish next year. We have also increased the interest in modern languages by supplying to our students names of native students in foreign countries who wish to correspond with American students.

Seminar courses have been added during the past year, so that students may continue their modern language courses indefinitely after completing the courses listed in the catalog.

DEPARTMENT OF ANCIENT LANGUAGE

JESSIE D. NEWBY
M. A.

Three of the four Latin courses offered may be taken by anyone interested in such things as the dress, meals, amusements, etc., of the Romans; Roman Coins; and the ruins and monuments of ancient Rome.

The other courses are designed for two classes of students: first, those who desire to pursue the subject for general educational purposes; second, those who desire to become teachers of Latin.

A Latin club called the Olympian Council is maintained in connection with the department. The club meets four times each term and offers an opportunity for friendship and better a quaintance with all those who are taking or who have had Latin.

The department is equiped with a laboratory and material for projects and poster work. A screen, stereoptican and slides are used frequently.

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY AND BIOLOGY

CLIFF R. OTTO
M. S.

It is the purpose of the Chemistry department of Central State Teachers College to offer a quality of work that will be acceptable in any institution. We recognize the fact that our first duty is to give the maximum development to the individual student. Chemistry offers an excellent tool for this purpose. If we can mold students, the learning of the sciences will take care of itself. Students are being prepared in basic science courses for the study of medicine, engineering, home economics, and pharmarcy.

The threefold aim of the Biology department is; to give the student a conception of the fundamental functions of life and an appreciation of the ways of nature; to prepare teachers who are able to do the same for their pupils; to provide the essential background for professions such as medicine and agriculture.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

ERNEST L. HOWELL
B. A.

The Department of Physics of Central offers sixteen two hour courses in physics. In addition to the eight hours of elementary physics and eight hours in household physics, radio and photography, advanced courses are offered in mechanics, heat, light, electricity, and the teaching of physics.

These physics courses are designed to meet two needs; first, to fulfill the requirements for entrance into medical schools and engineering; and second, to give the student a teaching knowledge of physics leading to a B. S. Degree. It is also the aim of the department to stimulate an interest in scientific knowledge and research. Photography from now on will probably be offered as a trades course.

VAN THORTON, B. S.

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Department of Industrial Arts has three objectives: first, to train industrial arts teachers for the high schools of Oklahoma; second to give training to those students who do not desire to specialize in the department an opportunity to become acquainted with the field and to get a working knowledge of materials and tools; third, to give the student a knowledge of materials and finishing in order that he may select and buy more intelligently.

The department is offering some trade courses as outlined in the Smith-Hughes Act.

FRED IVES M. S.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTUTE

The Department of Agriculture at Central is dedicated to the improvement of Agricultural Education for the nine thousand rural school teachers of Oklahoma who must serve the sixty-five per cent of the population of this state now dependent upon agriculture for employment. Every course taught in plant or animal production, farm management, or marketing is treated from the practical viewpoint of the man who tills the soil.

The campus of Central College is under the management of this department. The past year has witnessed the planting of trees and rearrangement of shrubs and flowers on the main campus and extensive improvement on the athletic fields.

DEPARTMENT OF HOME ECONOMICS

The aim of the Department of Home Economics is to provide training for the teaching profession as well as the profession of home making. To this end courses are provided in foods and clothing as well as household management and child training. The students secure valuable training in the many social functions which are given in the department. A series of demonstrative lectures on social etiquette for the entire student body was sponsored by the department during the year. To give the students a broader concept of the work and to acquaint them with activities in other fields, a delegate was sent by the Les Chefettes Club to the National Home Economics Association at Atlanta, Georgia in June. The Les Chefettes Club which is the college Home Economics club is affiliated with the National Organization.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

C. B. MACKLIN
B. S.

Central's music faculty has remained unchanged this year, and has carried on along the lines followed for some years.

Organizations now functioning are Women's glee club, Men's Glee Club, which presented Flotow's "Martha" in the early spring; Men's Quartet, Women's Quartet and Mixed Quartet; all under the direction of Miss Lucile Leftwich; Band, under the direction of John J. Gecks; Girls' Trio, under the direction of Mrs. C. B. Macklin; and Orchestra and String and Piano quintet under the direction of C. B. Macklin.

The smaller groups have been aiding the extension department, giving some sixty performances in various parts of the district during the year.

DEPARTMENT OF ART

Education has no more serious responsibility than making adequate provision for enjoyment of recreative leisure. The art courses provide the joy one derives from expression and creating. The study of design creates habits of orderliness, and its principles possess the foundation for well-ordered balanced living.

Art history affords a knowledge and enjoyment of works of art and a deeper appreciation of the master workmanship the artists. It instills an appreciation and a respect for the accomplishments of all people. It develops a sympathetic insight into masterly work.

According to Frank J. Lowth, the notion of ultimate and signicantly purposeful ends should characterize all profitable study of rural schools as well as of other educational problems. When teachers and supervisors become clearly conscious of enduring aims and principles in educational practices and procedures, more certain progress will be made in habituating boys and girls to effective social-civic participation.

DEPARTMENT OF CORRESPONDENCE

Central Teachers College offers home study opportunity to persons who are qualified to profitably pursue such study through its department of correspondence. The outlines for such courses as are offered through this department are prepared by the regular members of the college faculty and the papers prepared by the students are corrected by the regular faculty. This is done that the work of the department may be kept up to the same standard of quality as that done in the residence classes.

TEACHER PLACEMENT AND PROMOTION BUREAU

This service originated with the alumni association and is one in which the secretary of the alumni association has done splendid work for Central State Teachers College. The need for the extension of this service within the last few years has led to the cooperation of college with the alumni association in the work. It is through this bureau that school executives and boards of education make inquiries about desirable teachers. The alumni association and the college, working cooperatively, attempt to place deserving students and to aid in their professional advancement from time to time. It is the policy of this department to give reports on students and graduates that are discriminating and reliable, remembering always that it is only as our students and graduates serve the state that we can be of real service to them.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR MEN

CLAUDE E. REEDS, B. A.

Physical education was established as a department in colleges and universities many years ago. The original idea of physical education was to provide exercise for students in order that they might keep well. Of later years, physical education has been on the idea of recreation and competition as well as just exercise.

Central is well equiped to provide every phase of physical education and is endeavoring to provide some activity for every student. Central has one of the best gymnasiums in the state. It has two large basketball courts, a swimming pool, and ample locker and shower rooms. We also have a number of concrete tennis courts and varsity baseball, football, and practice fields.

Intercollegiate athletics furnish outside competition for many students.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

The department of physical education for women promotes such of athletic activities for all girls as shall meet their needs. It promotes competition that stresses enjoyment of sport and development of good sportsmanship and character training students to be "in the game—not on-lookers." The contents of the program are classified as follows: natural activities of daily life; free play and games; athletics and sports; dramatic expression (dancing, festivals, pageants); social service; self testing activities; individual corrective exercises; recreational activities. The slogan of the department is "An activity for every girl and every girl in an activity."

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCIAL EDUCATION

W. H. HORD
B. A.

ODUS MORGAN
B. A.

The immediate purpose of the Commercial Department is to prepare teachers with a broader and, at the same time, a more detailed knowledge of the various fields of business to supply the constantly increasing demand for high grade commercial teachers. However, the department does not lose sight of the highly important fact that this work is one of the best means of bringing the student into intimate contact with the world in which he lives which is, itself, by far the greater part commercial in its nature. With these ideals in mind new courses are gradually being added to take care of the new demands on the department.

Mrs. Hattie Gray Potter, Dean of Women, is also Chairman of the Department of Commercial Education.

DEPARTMENT OF PRINTING

ARTHUR WALTER
B. S.

The Central College printing department was organized by President Grant B. Grumbine and Professor F. C. Oakes in 1916. At that time the equipment in the shop was very meager; but at present it has all the facilities of a modern print-shop.

Material used by the college is printed in the shop; and aside from the regular classes that are taught in printing, one class of Smith Hughes work is offered each term.

The Vista, the college weekly paper, which is sent to all members of the alumni association, is printed and mailed by the students in the printing classes.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICES

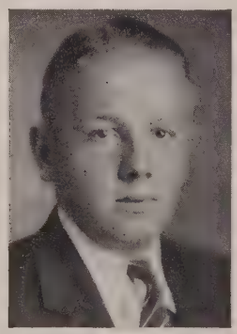

MAX I. MEADORS, B. S.
Secretary to the President, Assistant Director of Student Personnel

C. M. JENKINS
Financial Secretary

The administrative offices at Central aid in the functions of all departments. Closely woven into the program of the college are the Secretary's offices under Mr. Meadors; the Financial Secretary's office under Mr. Jenkins; and the Registrar's office under Mr. Lucy and Mr. Smartt.

Aiding the President in his efficient administration of the college's affairs, these offices lend assistance to both students and faculty according to their various duties.

DEPARTMENT OF LIBRARY

LYNDAL SWOFFORD
B. A., B. S.

"A good teacher," says Professor W. B. Munro, "must continually drink from the flowing stream of knowledge."

It is the earnest endeavor of the library staff to supply a constant influx of carefully selected books and other material to keep this stream flowing, to organize this material so that students and faculty members may have easy access to it, and to act as guides for those who have not already discovered the necessity for frequent drafts from this stream of knowledge.

DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER TRAINING

JOHN T. BUTCHER, M. A.

The training school of Central State Teachers College is the workshop of the institution. About four hundred pupils are enrolled. These are divided among twelve expert critic teachers. The purpose of the school is to maintain real teaching situations where expert teaching is practiced by experienced critic teachers for the benefit of the pupils and observing student teachers. Practice teaching is done by students only after careful preparation under direction of critic teachers.

The facilities for teacher training have been greatly extended this year. All high school classes are taught by regular faculty members. These classes are made the workshop for the training of high school teachers.

DEPARTMENT OF CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND PARENT EDUCATION

This department of extension service was added this year. The purpose of the course is to give knowledge of the scope of instruction for parent study groups in the fourteen counties in Central's district. Relationships of parents and children, home and school and the principles of health, psychology, child care and home management as applied to worthy home membership, the planning and organization of study groups and county centers through the public schools is a part of the state program in home economics.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES J. ROTHENBERGER, B. A.

Instructor in Foreign Languages

James J. Rothenberger came to Central as Instructor in Foreign Languages in the summer of 1917. For fourteen years he served this college faithfully and efficiently making many friends who mourn his death. He continued his work until a few days before his death on November 25, 1931.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN W. McGIBONEY, M. A.

Professor of Rural Education

John W. McGiboney came to Central as Professor of Rural Education in September, 1931. Previous to his election as a member of the Central College faculty he was for nine years superintendent of schools at Wynnewood, Oklahoma. He was universally respected and admired wherever he was known. He died December 3, 1931.

CLASSES

GRADUATE CLASS

Troughout the United States the teachers-training institutions have made unique progress during the past two decades. They have passed from high school and junior college rank to degree granting institutions. In recent years many of these schools have added graduate departments, research divisions, and are successfully competing with our universities in the graduate field.

Responding to an insistent demand from alumni, Central Teachers College is offering a limited number of courses on the graduate level. Most institutions offering advanced degrees allow candidates to present six or eight credits, earned at other schools. It is the purpose of Central to make available to graduates this limited amount of credit before they enter upon their advanced work in other institutions.

Courses now offered for graduate credit are few in number and the work is confined to such departments as are equipped for this undertaking. The library and laboratories have been enlarged to meet the increased demand made upon them by this advanced work. Other courses will be added to the graduate list, as demands increase and the equipment and faculties of the departments are enlarged.

The Senior Class of 1932 takes this opportunity to thank their Ma and Pa, otherwise known as Mrs. Estill and Mr. McCarrel, for this year's direction. We feel that our college lives would have been incomplete without their influence.

We also wish to express our appreciation of those other faculty members who have made our stay at Central more pleasant. We sincerely appreciate their help and we thank them.

The Senior Class.

The Arena Debating Club is the oldest debating club in Central, having been founded in 1909. It is perhaps the first club of its kind to be formed in the state. The meetings are conducted strictly according to parliamentary law. A strong constitution, which is rigidly observed, governs the club's work.

Each year the Arena Club takes part in inter-club debates and oratiorical contests.

One of the principal social activities of the club is the Arena Barn Dance given each spring. This is an informal dance and it considered one of the outstanding "good-times" of the year.

The Shakespeare Club, the oldest and one of the most popular girls' clubs in Central, was organized in 1908. It has been very active in the past year, presenting, as their annual play, "The Taming of the Shrew". The club has succeeded in making the luncheon at the Skirvin an annual affair. Other social events were: Rush tea, home-coming tea, and the annual spring dance.

HISTORY

The Tsa Mo Ga was organized in 1917 by Professor W. T. Ford with Miss Ruby Canton as faculty advisor. The chief aim was and is to cherish the arts and treasurers of the great race that is passing. The members desire to learn more of the lives, customs and traditions of the vanishing American Indian.

We have been exceedingly fortunate in having Mrs. Meagher for our sponsor for two consecutive years. We feel that much of our progress has been due to her interest and influence.

CLUB HISTORY

The Criterion Club was organized in 1912 for the purpose of studying modern drama. The programs have been interesting; many plays have been reviewed and biographies of the authors of these plays have been studied. The social activities have been most entertaining and successful.

The club presented the play, "Smiling Through", this year.

The Senate Club was organized in 1912 with Professor C. Oakes, as sponsor. The purpose of the club, as stated in the Constitution is "To promote interest and develop power in parliamentary law, debating and public speaking". During all of its history, the Senate has won its share of club honors, and claims among its former members many of the men who have since become leaders in the educational and political history of the state.

The Senate debaters were able to defeat the Arena in the Senate-Arena debate for the first semester. The Senate debaters were Leo Manes and Ernest Trapp; the question debated was: "Resolved that intercollegiate Athletics should be abolished", the Senate having the affirmative. Duke Barron won the oratorical contest with his original oration on World Peace.

During the year some very intersting programs were presented. On the annual steak fry for the other debating clubs on October 23, every one reported that though the steak was tough, they enjoyed themselves immensely.

The first Triumvirate Club was organized in the spring of 1914 by Mrs. Emma Estill who served as its sponsor during a period of three years.

The membership was confined primarily, during the early years, to outstanding students of history who were interested first in debating and second in pursuing various literary activities of a cultural nature.

The fifteen charter members were young women who had been impressed in their readings of the true three fold significance of "The First Triumvirate" of early Roman fame. No other name therefore could more effectively typify what the club wanted to stand for than "The First Triumvirate".

The three club colors, red, white and blue, selected at the time of organization were also indicative of the famous historical trio.

Miss Lucy Hampton succeeded Mrs. Estill as sponsor of the club and worked with it from 1917 until the spring of 1931.

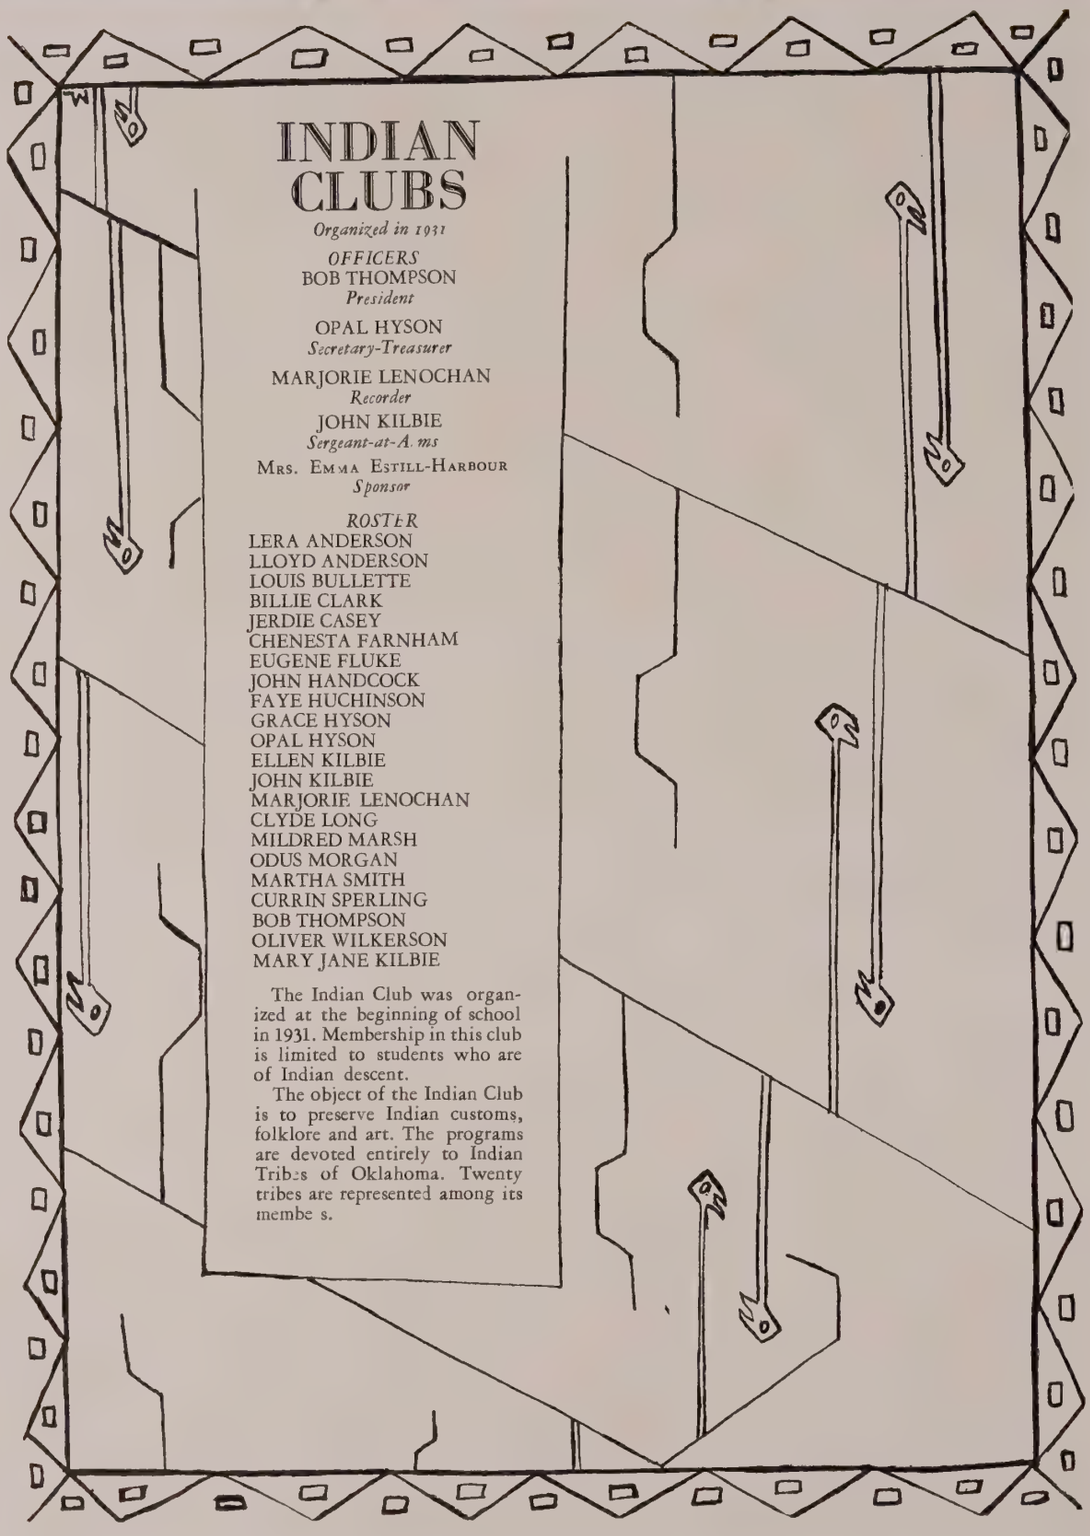

The club, during the eighteen years of its life, has maintained the ideals for which it was formed, and has grown in membership and in versatility of interests.

The Les Chefettes Club is the Home Economics Club of Central State Teachers College and was organized in the fall of 1927 by Miss Olive B. Thomas.

The object of the club is to study different phases of work pertaining to the home, and also to give the girls a chance to profit by club life.

The emblem of the club is the rolling pin. Any girl in Central having four hours of Home Economics work is eligible to become a member.

The club has had many important students as members and officers, including many class and club officers. The Editor of the 1932 Bronze Book, Grace Stephenson, is a charter member of this organization.

During the past two years this club has been affiliated with the Student Section of the Amercian Home Economics Association.

HISTORY OF THE CLUB

The Olympian Council is a club for past and present Latin students of Central State Teachers College. It was organized January 27, 1931. It meets on the even Tuesdays of each term. A Salutation was held in the fall for new members. For the Home coming parade, the council made a Lectica. At the Easter Chapel, a suitable pageant was presented. The members direct the yearly publication of Acta Latina. This year Mythology and Roman History have been studied.

HISTORY

Les Metieres Art Club was organized October 6, 1931 in Room 302, Old North Tower. The purpose of the club is to study art in its various phases, to encourage the creative abilities of the members and to sponsor exhibits.

Two of the leading events of the year were an exhibition of Modern Austrian Painting at East Central State Teachers College at Ada, which the club attended and an exhibition of one hundred prints by contemporary artists at Central.

A small pallet was selected as the club emblem and smocks of all colors for the uniform.

The French Club was organized this year for the purpose of providing an opportunity for students of French to practice speaking that language. Especially it provides a desirable opportunity for students who are no longer enrolled in French courses but who wish to retain their knowledge of French by practice.

The meetings are conducted informally. They consist chiefly of French games, songs, and conversations. The Club will continue to meet during the summer term and next year if it is desired by the students.

Outstanding among the club's activities this year was the presentation of Moliere's satirical comedy, "Le Medecin Malgre Lui" of "The Doctor in Spite of Himself."

The play was directed by Mr. Chambers and enacted by members of the club. The presentation of a well known French play may become an annual project of the club if it continues. This year's play was presented for the students and public without admission charge.

Central's Historical Society is one of the oldest and most constructive societies in Oklahoma. Any newcomer to the campus notices particularly the professional and cultured value of the work done by the organization. The interest maintained is not only a means but serves as a motive for the acquisition of historical knowledge and for the formation of right habits of thought and action.

In addition to collecting records of state, national and international history the society has eight regular meetings each year. Special emphasis this year has been placed on Oklahoma History, April 22, Washington's Place of History, February 22nd, International Relations, and November 11. One meeting has been devoted to the history of Central College and one to Historiography.

HISTORICAL MUZEUM

The Historical Museum is now housed in the balcony of the Library Building: in fact it is recognized as a part of the library proper. Having accepted Huxley's description—a museum is a consultative library of objects—Central College has discovered that the Teachers College is the most logical place for a museum of history; where teachers and other students may use this valuable material as the usual library is used and as the laboratory is used by the scientist.

This valuable collection was made by the Central State Teachers College Historical Society during the years 1915-1919. From 1921 to the Autumn of 1931 the museum was stored in the attic of the Old North Tower. It was under the leadership of Professor Lucy Jeston Hampton that the Historical Society was organized and the Museum collected; during these seventeen years Miss Hampton has been faculty advisor for the Society and curator of the Museum.

A view of the Museum looking north. Note Central's service flags. The College had, including faculty and studensts, two hundred and ten persons in service during the Great War. The President of the College at that time, J. W. Graves was of this number. There were five women in this group, one of whom was Mrs. Emma Estill-Harbour of our present faculty.

The Young Women's Christian Association of Central State Teachers College is a branch of the national organization and is a participant in the World's Student Christian Federation.

The blue triangle symbolizes the threefold purpose of the Y.W.C.A. the development of spirit, mind and body. The organization at Central has endeavored this year to be a motive power in the lives of its members.

Each year the Y.W.C.A. prepares and publishes the Student Directory in order to maintain a loan fund for the benefit of girls wishing to attend college.

GIRL'S QUARTETTE

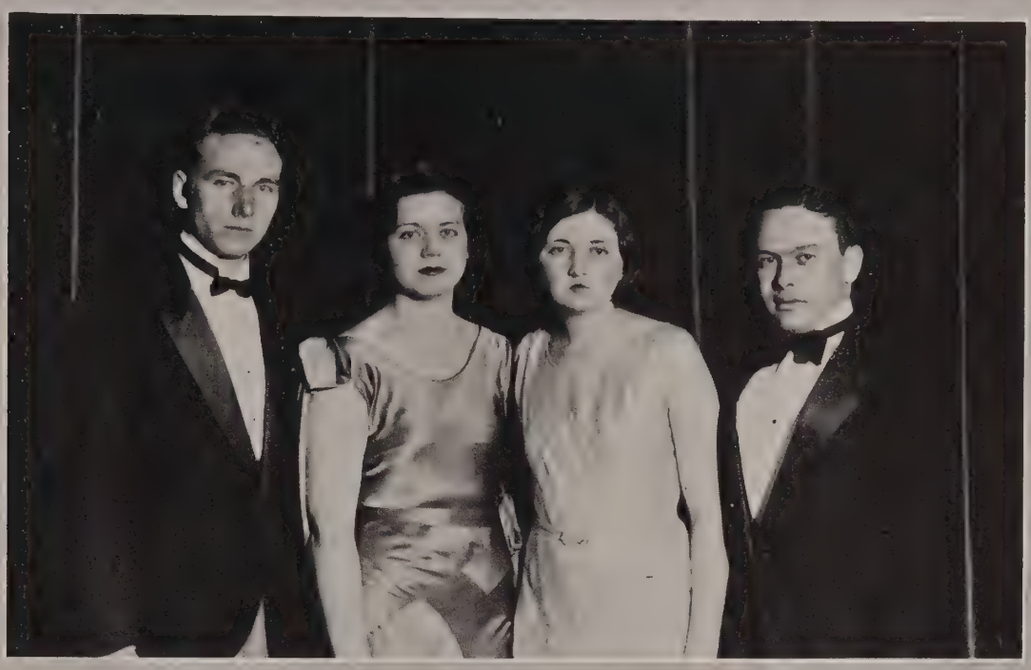

This year the glee clubs and quartettes have furnishd music at many school functions. The Boy's Quartett, the Girls' Quartette, and the Mixed Quartette have sung at many chapel programs and social gatherings as well as appearing in concerts of various kinds.

The Boy's Quartette has been one of the popural organizations of the year having been invited to appear on many programs both at home and over the state.

The Glee Clubs have been heard often during the year on chapel programs and in concert. It is the custom for the two glee clubs to unite in presenting a cantata or an opera. However, this year was spent in studying and singing the works of such composers as Mendelssohn, Schumann, Schubert, Handel, Brahms, and Palestrina.

INSTRUMENTAL QUINTET

Central's Instrumental Quintet has been active in extension work, going with President Beeson on his good-will trips over Central District and has appeared also at several Edmund functions. It played at the district meeting of the Federated Music Clubs at Shawnee and was invited to go to Washington D. C. for the bi-centennial celebration. It has also appeared at the Oklahoma City Ladies Music Club in Oklahoma City.

The Vocal Trio is another of the small groups in the music department which has accompanied President Beeson on his extension trips through the Central District. It has also been in demand in Edmond and elsewhere for various social and musical functions.

Central's Orchestra is another popular music group. It has given two concerts during the year and has officiated at several plays for incidental music.

1932 DEBATORS

With the largest squad of debators in its history, Central has enjoyed a year of increasing popularity in forensic activities. A number of tournaments as well as a generous schedule of dual debates allowed a larger number than ever before to participate in actual inter-collegiate competition. The following students represented the school in one of more collegiate debates or orations: Horace Goss, John Butcher, Richard Vorheis, Byron Vorheis, D. P. Lowe, Lawrence Ellzy, Ted Puntney, Howard Drake, Grace Rankin, Alberta Kruse, Juliaette Naylor, and Hazel Shinn.

VARSITY DEBATING SQUAD

The boys' team of John Butcher and Richard Vorheis, and the girls' team of Juliaette Naylor and Hazel Shinn were chosen as the varsity representatives for Central in inter-collegiate debating. An extensive schedule was engaged in, including: the Winfield Tournament at Winfield, Kansas; Durant Tournament at Durant, Oklahoma; National Pi Kappa Delta Tournament at Tulsa, Oklahoma; and the Arkansas Tournament at Arkadelphia, Arkansas. Besides these tournaments numerous dual debates were engaged in by both teams. The year was highly satisfactory from the standpoint of wins and losses, a considerable majority of the debates being placed in the win column.

In addition to winning debates these teams met representatives from nany schools throughout Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas, Arkansas, and even from states more remote such as South Dakota,Tennessee, Illinois, Montata and Wisconsin. By this means cordial relations were establishsd with many other institutions, and the name of Central carried to the far corners of many states.

Byron Vorheis, as Central's orator brought prestige to himself and Central by tying for first in the Durant, Oklahoma oratorical contest and by representing Central in the Natoinal SpeechTourney at Tulsa.

JOHN ONEY
Business Manager

It has been a great pleasure to work with the staff of the 1932 Bronze Book. From the book itself you see that they have performed their task well.

Mr. Bob Thompson, the Advertising Manager, has done well in obtaining material for the advertising section. Mr. Gudger Bartley, the Publicity Manager, has kept the word "Bronze Book" before the students at all times. Mr. John Oney, the Business Manager, with the help of these two has managed the financing of the book very satisfactorily. Miss Grace Stephenson, the Editor, and her assistants have given you a complete record of this year at Central, and deserve credit for the success of the book. The art department has been a great assistance and I appreciate their help.

I want to express to each member of the staff my appreciation for his cooperation in preparing this book for publication.

KIRBY PAGE IS SPEAKER IN CHAPEL

Editor of 'Our World Tomorow' Gives Valuable Information on World Conditions.

STRESSES CHRISTIANITY

Visitor, Man of Wide Travel; Has Had Personal Interviews with Mahatma Gandhi, Bernard Shaw, and Ramsey McDonald.

Kirby Page, editor of "Our World Tomorrow" and a Christian minister gave a most interesting talk on the world's conditions today, stressing the need for Christianity, in Chapel Tuesday morning.

Mr. Page asked the students to try to think how many thousands of times the Lord's prayer had been given and in how many different languages and he added that the reason why the Lord's prayer has not been answered is that people all through the centuries have failed to follow and use Jesus' methods day by day and that His whole method has been refuted.

Mr. Page went on to say that the primary method is to be a participant in a family with God the head. That the Kingdom is a Divine Society and the purpose of the people is to help build that Divine Society.

The way to build this Kingdom on earth is to live today as a good member of God's family, take heed and beware of covetousness and greed, and the peoples of different races should treat all the others as one of their family and as equals, thinks Mr. Page.

The different day in which we are living and the present peril causes us to be in great darkness. We are nearer another war than we have been since the armistice was signed. In his opinion nations have tried to build civilization upon "Pride and Greed."

Mr. Page is a world traveler, has visited 35 countries and has talked with Bernard Shaw, Ramsey McDonald and Mahatma Gandhi. He is a native of Texas.

CENTRAL CO-EDS

Girls of Central started playing basket-ball Thursday night, January 21, at 7:30. There were from 80 to 90 girls out, and there will be practice every Thursday night, beginning at 7:30 at the Wantland hall.

All girls who are interested in basket-ball are invited to come out and play, as the number of teams will depend upon the number of girls reporting.

A class and club tournament will be held later on, with Miss Plunkett and Miss House in charge.

ENROLLMENT

Second semester enrollment at Central State Teachers college, January 26, 1932 numbered fourteen hundred and fifty-seven. Of this number eleven hundred and sixty are enrolled in college, sixty one in high school, and two hundred and thirty-six in the training school.

Total estimated enrollment on January 21, 1931, was twelve hundred and seventy. This gives an increase of one hundred and eighty-seven students for Central over last year's enrollment at this time.

DEAN LUCY SPEAKS

Mr. Otto C. Lucy, head of the department of speech of Central State Teachers college, is to speak over W. K. Y. February 18, from 3:15 to 3:30 p. m. on the subject of "analysing the Oratorical Manuscript"

This address will be given at the request of Mr. R. C. Miller, Sunday editor of The Daily Oklahoman and manager of the Constitutional Oratorical Contest in Oklahoma.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS FORMED ON CAMPUS

Members of the Dramatics 7 Class Are to be Charter Members; to be Called "Blue Curtain Players."

"Blue Curtain Players," a dramatic club, was organized on Tuesday evening, January 26, 1932, by the Dramatics 7 class, under the supervision of Mr. Otto C. Lucy.

The following officers were elected: Roy Kunkel, president; Carl Bagwell, vice-president; Helen Thurmond, corresponding secretary, Helen Chamberlain, recording secretary; and Willis Smith, librarian and reporter.

The members of the Dramatics 7 class will be the charter members.

In discussing the organization of a club it was pointed out that now as never before, America is turning to the theatre. That it is not merely a desire to be entertained, but a new and deepening appreciation of the institution of the stage as a cultural factor in any community is making itself felt throughout the country. It was shown to those present that one has but to note the daily activities of the more representative of nearly two thousand little theaters scattered throughout the United States to be convinced that the theater when taken seriously and approached with the dignity worthy of it, has a definite contribution to make to both the individual and the neighborhood.

The members of this class being desirous of attaining such ideals as were pointed out and realizing fully that the best way to know the theater, of course, is to see it from the front and labor in it behind the scenes, decided they would be interested in seeing formed on the campus of C. S. T. C. a Dramatic Club, which would aid in building a foundation for dramatic appreciation and production in their college.

MACKLIN TALKS TO YWCA GROUP

Music of Early Day Title for Discussion.

"Music of Early Day as Portrayed in Church Hymns," was discussed by Mr. C. B. Macklin, professor of music at the Y. W. C. A. meeting Thursday, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Macklin states, that as man's concept of God changed so did the music of the church. The savage belief was, that God was a large person carrying a mallet, to whom they should give sacrifice. He was a God that was quick to anger, and of whom they had much fear. The Jews likewise believed in a God but they did not offer unto him sacrifices.

The general concept of God in the early days was portrayed through chants and they resembled our tribal chants of today. These chants have been preserved by Bach, Ambros and Gregory.

Palestina, later took up the work of Gregory. He believed that the object of music was, to lift men's souls to God. Before this time chants were sung without harmony or meter. Palestina was most skillful and later developed a harmonizing music from which our hymns of today have originated.

NEW ENGLAND PRIMER PRESENTED BY ONEY

Mr. John Oney presented to the Museum of Central a copy of the New England Primer in December, 1931.

Along with the Bible and the Hornbook it was used as a text in the first schools of New England. It has been said that it taught many to read and not one to sin.

The exact date of the first edition is not known but the first recorded date is in 1691.

This book shows signs of much use; however, it is still in an excellent state of preservation. Central appreciates this valuable contribution and wishes to thank Mr. and Mrs. Oney.

WELCOME BASKETEERS

On behalf of President Beeson, Coach Reeds, and Central College as a whole, the Vista welcomes the young men who will take part in the Basketball tournament here this week, together with their coaches and friends.

The college wishes to make your visit a happy one, and the Lettermen of Broncho athletics will go the limit to be of service to you. Make your wishes known to any man wearing the Bronze and Blue.

Central would like to see every team entered win the tournament; but since that cannot be, here are best wishes to all and may the best team win!

SPEECH BY DR. McBRIEN

Addresses League of Young Democrats Thursday Evening; "Reminiscences of Bryan and Wilson," Subject.

Dr. J. L. McBrien addressed the League of Young Democrats at their meeting, Tuesday evening in Pioneer hall. His subject was, "Reminiscences of Bryan and Wilson."

Professor McBrien dwelt on idealism. In his unique style he emphasized the necessity of organizations for the study of citizenship and government, and urged the league to join him in reconsecration of William Jennings Bryan's great ideal, "Initiative and Referendum," "Give us an ideal far above that of a desire for any public office—an ideal that will prompt each and everyone of us to do our best to make this nation so good, that to be a private citizen of the United States of America is greater than to be king or queen of any nation on earth!" he declared.

In reviewing Bryan's life, character and career, from the time he was elected to Congress in 1890 up to the World War period, he quoted a sentence from the great orator's speech to the Democratic National convention at Chicago in 1896, which clearly brings out this ideal. "You shall not press down on the brow of the laborer the crown of thorns—you shall not crucify mankind upon a cross of gold."

Again to fully emphasize the need of education in a democratic form of government he gave a part of President Cleveland's speech to Princeton University students, in which he said, "Obviously a government resting upon the will and universal suffrage of the people has no anchorage except in the people's intelligence, while the arvantages of college education are by no means necessary to good citizenship. The college graduate who is found everywhere, cannot smother his opportunities to teach his fellow countrymen, and influence them for good, nor can he hide his talents in a napkin, without betraying his trust.

Mr. Otto C. Lucy, head of the department of speech in Central State Teachers college, gave an address to the high school students of Hennessay on Friday, January 29, at 1:15 p. m.

BOYS LEARN ETIQUETTE

Miss Olive Thomas Gives Lecture on "Correct Manners;" One of a Series of Talks.

"Correct Manners," was the subject of a lecture given by Miss Olive Thomas, Wednesday, January 27, at 7 o'clock in Pioneer Hall.

A brief history of etiquette was given, and the effect of economic and social changes have on etiquette.

"Manners are the great unwritten laws of social behavior, and correct etiquette is important in a highly organized society," stated Miss Thomas. "Man cannot live by himself, but must live with a group. His economic value to society is judged by his ability to get along with people."

Terminology and certain rules that are considered correct at the present time were discussed. Social usages as applied to formal dinners was given.

Miss Thomas explained the three types of service: Russian, English, and compromise, and also the importance of correct conversation and invitation was discussed.

Wednesday night at 7 o'clock the actual laying of the table and the serving of a formal dinner will be presented by Miss Thomas, assisted by Louise Williams and Edna Mae Johnson.

Three boys and three girls will be guests, with one boy acting as host, and one girl hostess. Both family and formal services will be explained. All men are invited.

The purpose of the lecture by Miss Thomas is to show the college student economic, social, and educational advantages of correct etiquette.

SPEECH CONTEST HERE IN APRIL

Central college, under the auspices of Oklahoma Senior College Speech Teachers' association, will sponsor a dramatic and speech contest to be held at Central, April 8 and 9, for high schools of the Central idstrict.

Complete information is obtainable by writing Professor F. C. Oakes, who is chairman.

The Vista wishes to express its appreciation to Miss Green and the art department for the cuts which they have contributed, and for their willingness to aid the staff in making a bigger and better paper.

NOTICES

All applications must be filled out properly, and be in the hands of the committee by three-thirty o'clock Thursday, February 4. All apppli-cants must meet with the committee on Thursday, February 3, at three-thirty o'clock,

Otto C. Lucy, Registrar.

Faculty meeting today at 3:10.

Physical Examinations

All students who did not take physical examination last semester, and all new students will be required to take examinations during the next two weeks.

Schedules for each student will appear on bulletin board. Watch for your name.

If you can't report as arranged, girls see Mrs. Scott for appointment, boys see Mr. Reeds.

You will not be admitted to class the day following your scheduled time unless examinations are made or arranged for.

M. A. Beeson, President.

Each club president is requested to give Professor Edward E. Keso a list of club officers for the second semester. Mr. Keso is general supervisor of clubs in Central.

ALDEN G. ALLEY NEXT SPEAKER IN ASSEMBLY

Noted Professor to Discuss European Affairs and Their Relation to America.

"What is Happening in Europe" and "What it means to America," will be discussed by Alden G. Alley in assembly at 10.00 o'clock February 9.

Mr. Alley, who is professor of history at Dana College in Newark, New Jersey, and a graduate of Harvard University, has been for several years a teacher and student of international affairs.

He traveled extensively in Europe before the war, and in 1918-1919 served as lieutenant in the United States infantry in France.

Every summer since 1922 he has gone abroad to study international problems at first hand, having attended nine different sessions of the League of Nations assembly.

Mr. Alley has had an unusually close association with statesmen and with international organizations in various parts of the world, and has an intimate knowledge of many of the important problems confronting Europe today.

HARRISON DESCRIBES HABITS OF CHOCTAWS

Speaks to Indian Club Monday Evening at 7 O'clock in Pioneer Hall.

Mr. Ben F. Harrison, state budget officer, spoke before the Indian club of Central in Pioneer hall, Monday evening, January 25. His talk was on the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indian Nations.

Mrs. Harbour, sponsor of the club, introduced the speaker as one who has been interested in political affairs of Oklahoma since statehood.

Mr. Harrison described the homes of the Chickasaws and Choctaws before their removal to Oklahoma; their habits and customs; their visit from De Soto in 1540; and their removal to Oklahoma. He also described their government, their school system, and their recreation or sports.

NEW MINISTER TO CITY CHURCH

Rev. Dyre Campbell, former pastor of Anthony, Kansas, with his wife and two year old son, arrived in Edmond Tuesday, January 19, to succeed Rev. Wesley Runyan as minister of the Christian church.

Rev. Campbell holds three degrees from Phillips University—A. B., A. M. and B. D. He was student pastor at Nash, Oklahoma, last year.

MARTIAL TATUS

According to the martal status of Central State Teachers college for the last semester there are eleven hundred and thirty-five (81.07) students who are not married. One hundred and ninety (13.57) of the fourteen hundred students enrolled are married. Twenty-four)1.71) are widowed and twenty (1.43) are divorced. There are thirty-one students who either forgot or did not care to state their classification.

These are the statistics at the time of enrollment. We are not responsible for any changes that have been made.

Leap year ought to do wonders for the eleven hundred and thirty-five.

2. Neither home nor career was built in a day.—Clayton Schiebach.

3. The battle rather than the victor provides the thrills. —Emil Schellstede.

4. Success without effort is hallow. —Janie Helene Long.

5. Often we can profit from losses. —Herschel Martin.

6. Rough going makes ultimately for smooth going.—Ghita Anderson.

CLUBS PUT ON VARIOUS SIDE SHOWS

Merchants Contribute Prizes Used in Drawing Contest; Banks each Donate Dollar Bill.

ARENA SHOW, KNOCKOUT

Dance in Pioneer Hall Revives Old Forty-Nine Days; Nickel a Set, Girls Furnished.

Central's annual Bronze Book carnival was held in the Administration building January 29, doors opening at 7 o'clock p. m. The entire performance, which carried with it all the mysteries and thrills of the common street carnival, including fortune tellers, hula hula dancers, freaks of nature, fire-eaters, magicians, etc., was arranged by the various clubs under the direction of Mrs. Emma Estill-Harbour, as a means of raising funds for the college year book.

Merchants Donate

Edmond business houses donated prizes ranging from kidney pills to gasoline, which were disposed of through a drawing handled by the LassO club.

Arenas Steal Show

Sssssh— It didn't happen in Monterey—It happened in the President's office.

Arena's staged an oriental court scene with Gandhi as guest in the royal palace. "Hippo" Wilday stole the show, doing an enchanting Arabian dance which brought Sultan Griffin tearing from his throne and sent Gandhi staggering to the ropes. The Booster reporter went down for the count of nine, but the gong saved him. "All out and over," cried the stage manager, right at the auspicious moment.

'Forty Nine' Gals Get Nice Play

"Up to the bar, men——five cent ani—let 'er go Billie!" An old time "Forty-Nine dance happened in Pioneer hall—college girls posing as "East G street" dancers oodled the boys out of their nickels, in regular oil field style, sending many poor lads home cigaretteless.

Seven Wonders of the World

"Hey! Hey! folks, big camel race just starting, just commencing—camels are just coming out for time trials on big desert speedway." The camels, however, turned out to be just ordinary "fags." A man in the audience remarked, that he would walk a mile anytime for a camel, but that he didn't get much of a kick out of walking a mile just to see one. He raised so much disturbance, the management was forced to give him back his nickle.

Wow! Injuns!

Medicine man of the Tsa Mo Ga club reveals the formula of an old Indian cure-all tonic, guaranteed to cure everything from a sore toe to yellow Jaundice. It is a chemical solution of Humming bird wings, mosquito eyebrows, pig dandruff, and toad warts.

Among the other attractions were the miniature picture show by the Olympians, the Zis-Zag follies by the art club, Peeping Tom by the W. A. A., fortune telling by the Shakespeares, and an education display by the science club.

BI-CENTENNIAL ISSUE

Bi-Centennial Issue of The Vista, February 8, will be devoted to the Washington Bi-Centennial celebration and will give suggestive programs for grade schools, junior and senior high schools in Central's territory.

If you wish a copy of this issue of The Vista, write The Vista, Central College, Edmond, Oklahoma. They are for free distribution.

This will be the greatest celebration ever held on Earth in honor of mortal man.

Let your school and community do their bit.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was organized in the fall of 1931 as the beginning of student government at Central. It consists of three students chosen from the Senior and Junior Classes. This year the Senior Class was allowed to elect two members to represent them on the council. The other member was selected from the Junior Class. The Student Council is the representative of the student body as a unit and it is their privilege to meet with the faculty committee and discuss matters concerning students and their activities.

The members this year are Mrs. Elsie Ferguson-Evans and Mr. John Oney from the Senior Class, and Mrs. T. N. Delbridge from the Junior Class. To be a member of the Student Council is one of the highest honors that can come to an undergraduate. Only those students who have made high grades and whose conduct has been above question are eligible for membership. It is something worth any student's working toward.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the W.A.A. is to foster an interest in athletic activities and accomplishments and to extend good sportsmanship.

The W.A.A. sweater with a monogram is awarded on the completion of eight hundred points, earned by any girl in good standing. On the completion of seven hunderd additional points, the Central "C" is awarded. A stripe is awarded for each additional year's work thereafter. Such a group of girls make up the Letter Girls' Organization and their function is to assist the director in the W.A.A.

Intramural games are played, in season, soccer, hockey, basketball, volley ball, baseball, tennekoits. Additional sports on the side are archery, tennis, swimming, track and hiking. Tennis and swimming meets are held with Oklahoma University, Stillwater A. & M., and Oklahoma City University, each year the W.A.A. sponsors club basketball and volley ball tournaments.

The annual circus given December 10 was a huge success, financially and otherwise. The manless parties sponsored by the W.A.A. are quite relieving and enjoyable after other social activities in the school.

1931 FOOTBALL SEASON

An entirely new coaching staff arrived September 1, to take charge of the athletic situation at Central. Introducing a system unknown to the boys of pervious years, and with a wealth of new material, Coach Reeds and his assistant, Taylor and Swartz, at once began work.

The first game was played two weeks after the opening of the season with the powerful Oklahoma City University team. The Broncs were defeated 20 to 0.

The Broncs showed considerable improvement the following week and beat the Moundbuilders of Southwestern Kansas 13 to 6.

October 3 the West Texas Teachers seemed to be too much for the Bronchos and defeated them 7 to 0.

With a week's rest and much hard work on the part of the coaches and members of the squad, we met the powerful aggregation from Southwestern in the first conference game of the season. The Savages were turned away 19 to 0.

The following week, October 23, the squad went to Alva. The game was played at night and it seemed that the Bronchos could not make much headway. However, the game ended the same as it began 0 to 0.

The Homecoming game on October 31 was a perfect game to see. The Bronchos took an early lead and scored twice in the first half. Then they gave the Old Grads a thrill by standing back and watching the Bisons from O.B.U. tie the score 13 all. In the final minutes of play the team showed what they were capable of doing. They took the ball from the kick-off straight down the field and across the goal line. The game ended 19 to 13 in favor of the Bronze and Blue.

November 6 the Southwestern Bulldogs were put out of the conference race on the Central field. Central 27, Southwetersn 0.

The team journeyed to Tahlequah November 14 to meet the Northewestern Redmen and defeated them 25 to 0 before their Homecoming crowd.

On the home stretch to a conference championship the team was prepared to meet the East Central Tigers. The Bronchos and Tigers met Thanksgiving Day at Ada. The Tigers were trampled in a very muddy field 9 to 0 giving the Bronchos undisputed right to the collegiate championship.

Those who made all-state were Captain Tommy Wallace, John Doerner, Terry Thompson, and Ben Cleveland. There was perfect cooperation on the part of every squad member, and the dilligence and faithfulness with which the coaches worked is worthy of mention in larger books than this.

BASKETBALL TEAM

From a standpoint of games won and lost the season of 1931-32 was only moderately successful.

During the first few weeks of practice there seemed to be little difference in the apparent ability of various members of the huge squad reporting. However,as the playing season got under way a squad of some dozen men outpaced the others and began to stand out as the better prospects. This group comprised the Broncho team.

During the earlier games Captain Stack and Morris took the lead in the scoring columns, but before mid-season they both suffered injuries which kept them handicapped during the later chapters.

Lofton Reynolds was slow getting started but it was his timely shooting and defensive work during the latter part of the season that kept the Broncs in the game.

Red Ellis came through for his share of the points in a number of games—he scored seventeen in one game against the "Bugs."

Stew Seaton and Dale Hamilton were not scoring aces by any means but their defensive work and passing were important factors.

Pete Bernell, (Captain-elect) was without doubt the outstanding man of the Bronc squad. In addition to being the high scoring inidividual for the season he was recognized as one of the best guards in the conference. Pete never ran his total very high in any one game, but his consistency brought his total up.

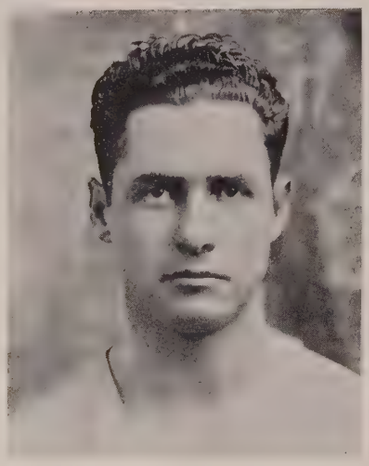

J. D. Gray was an important factor in both offense and defense. He was a capable center, an effective guard and always a scoring threat. J. D. is one of the brightest prospects for next years squad.

Louis Cornforth is a fast clever youngster—perhaps the most effective floor man and feeder on the squad. He is also a good prospect for the next two seasons.

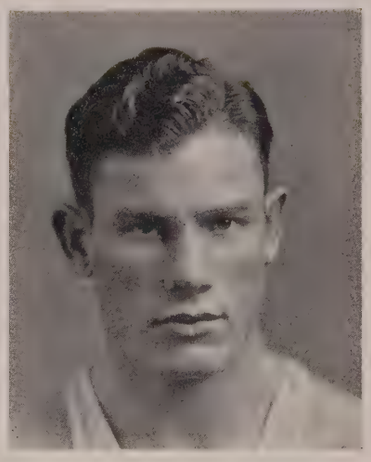

Buck Wade played an important part in a number of games. He was always ready to take his turn at guard or center.

Leo Cain proved to be a capable center, probably the best man on the tip-off on the squad. Being one of the youngsters he has several seasons yet.

WRESTLING TEAM

The opening match of the season was against Southwestern at Durant. The boys looked very impressive in this match winning four falls and two decisions. Score, Central 24, Southewstern 4.

January 16 we took on the powerful Sooners of Okahoma University. Coach Keen has a veteran in every weight save one, but our boys fought hard and every match was bitterly contested.The Sooners took the first six weights and theBronchos the last two. Schellstede easily defeated the great Childers, and Doerner won a technical fall over Bishara. Score, Sooners, 20, Central 8.

The following week the team journeyed to Stillwater to take on the all-victorious Aggies of National Championshop fame. Reynolds pinned Costner, Lightweight, for the only weight won from the Cowboys. Score, Aggies, 23, Central 5.

With three freshmen and two alternates in the lineup, Polly Wallace's Tigers were defeated by the schore of 17½ to 12½

Kansas Aggies gave the Central wresters pobably the geatest contest of the season. Reynolds, Shadle, Burns, Schellstede and Caldwell won for the Bornchos. Score Central 19, Kansas Aggies, 9.

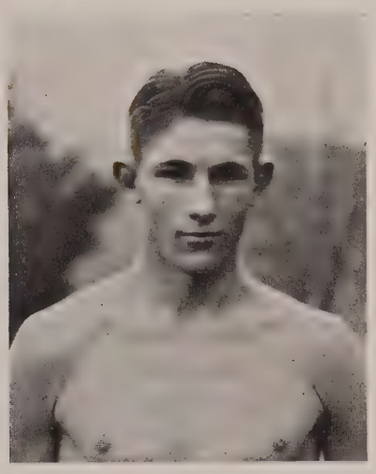

Southwestern Bulldogs invaded Central territory with an excellent and chestd cloister of would-be and determined-to-be State Champions. Undoubtedly, this match was in all detalis the most thrilling dual wrestling match of the season. Each encounter from the lightweight to the heavy division was a championship battle of brawn and brain.The Bronchos emerged with the long end of a 16 to 14 score.

Northeastern Redmen of Tahlequah was the last encounter of the season. Winning this match by a score of 17½ to 7½ the Branchos were undefeated and were thus proclaimed the Collegiate Champions of Oklahoma.

SPRING SPORTS

The call for baseball was answered by an aggressive group of baseball players. Led by Red Lowry, Central's pitching ace, the Broncs have divided games with Oklahoma University in a four-game series, and with Oklahoma A & M in a two-game series.

With a large squad out for track, prospects for a successful season are very bright. Andy Evans, many times a letterman, is Captain. Under his leadership the track team is expected to retain theconference championship.

The cross country team led all opponents into camp and retained their title as conference champions.

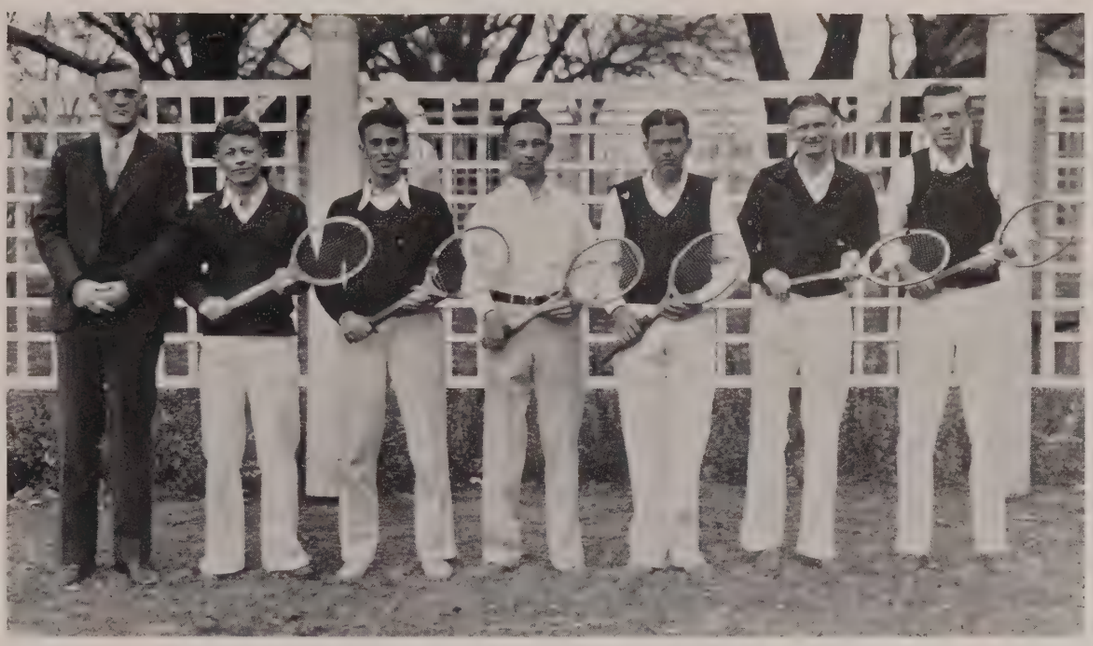

Central has the only tank in the conference, therefore has no conference opponents. Several meets have been scheduled and the Broncs are expected to carry off their share of the honors.

The tennis team got off to a great start with a larger number of men reporting for practice than in any previous seasons. To date they have met only two teams but have defeated those easily. They are expected to continue this performance and follow their usual custom of winning the conference title.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Central Lettermen's Club was organized in 1922. It is the oldest organization of its kind in Oklahoma. As the name implies, the Lettermen's Club is composed of men who have lettered in one or more sports carried on by the school. Any student in process of earning a letter is considered a pledge to this club unless he has perviously earned a letter.

The purpose of this organization are to perpetuate from year to year an active athletic association in Central; to promote and develop a spirit of good fellowship among athletics in Central; to bring closer together the athletes in school and the alumni of Central; to sponsor intercollegiate competition; to strive to put good teams in the field at all times and to interest young athletes in coming to Central. The class of athletes who will make up the letternem's Club in the future depends largely upon the kind of athletes our graduates send to us. Therefore the carefulness with which they select athletes determines greatly the value and strength of this club.

One of the outstanding features of the Lettermens Club is the Annual Invitation Basketball Tournament. This year more than one hundred teams from all parts of the state entered this tournament. This tournament is very important to central as it is through it that hundreds of high school athletes visit Central.

This year the club has had a very successful year under the leadership of President Andy Evans with Reford Stack as Vice-President and Eddie Good as Secretary.

Dear readers, we are very sorry, but somehow in the rush the top of our dear Old North Tower was lost off this wonderful portrayal, and it was necessary to replace it with art work. 'However, do not feel that you are missing anything, for we have had our staff artist fill in all the missing details in a very realistic manner.

The members of this illustrious baseball team, which this year won the conference for having the most original playing suits, are: back row reading from left to right: Dewey Crabb, Central's famous be-spectacled pitcher; Wormy Raborn, heavy slugging outfielder; Gooseface Ellis, bench-warming first baseman; Jask Frost, pep coach and catcher; Leo Robertson, hook arm pitcher; Franz Hawpe, snappy short stop; Red Lowery, fiery red headed ace of pitching staff; Coach Taylor, inspiration of the team. Front row, from left to right are: Johnny Walker, general utility man; Roy Riley who catches most of 'em in the eye; Stan Mears, dazzling outfielder; Debs Bartley, holder of th hot corner.

In the fall of 1924 upon the call of Mrs. Emma Astill-Harbour, a select group of young men of Central State Teachers College met together for the purpose of organizing a greatly needed pep club. A proper organization was made with a written constitution and the club was to be known as the "Spur Pep Club". This name was adopted to conform with the name of the athletic teams of Central—the Bronchos. Charter members of the club are: James Sala, President, Byron Jolly, Vice-President, James Harrison, Secretary-Treasurer, Wendell Simmons, John Morrison, Lee Miller, Tom Corr, Roy Blankeship, Frederick Brigham Bill Bridges, Vern Hewett, Cephus Pinson, Cecil Callarman, Alva Martin, Ryan Kerr, Liberty Nicholson, Leslie Stewart, Tom Warren, Cecil Brichfield, Wesley Hammond, Paul Elkins, Paul Howell, Burton Douthit, Ted Cronkite, Dennis Barfield, Coen Neff.

The Spur Club has continued to be active every year and is still recognized as the leading pep organization of Central. The Spurs can always be found leading the rooting section during the various Broncho sport engagements and they always head the annual Homecoming parade.

RUSH TEAS

T. O. K.

Forty-five girls were entertained at a rush tea, given by the Tau Theta Kappa Club Monday afternoon, September the twenty-eighth at the home of Mrs. Lemmaster, 216 North Boulevard. Mrs. Evangeline Noyes acted as hostess.

A center piece of white snap dragons with sprays of fern was effective in presenting the club colors green and white.

Refreshments consisting of tea, sandwiches, macaroons, and mints were served.

SHAKESPEARE

Very lovely in appointments was the tea given by the Shakespeare Club, September the twenty-third in the home of Miss Claire Surbeck. Gracing the service table was a bowl of pink roses reflected in a crystal base and flanked by pink tapers. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Hattie Gray-Potter and Mrs. Wendell Simmons during the first hour, and Mrs. Emma Estill-Harbour and and Mrs. Wallace Borum, during the second hour.

TRIUMVIRATE

The mystery, the beauty, and the quaintness of old Japan were all manifested in the lovely Japanese tea given by the Triumvirate Club on September, twenty-fourth in the office of the Dean of Women.

Guests were ushered into the room which was attractively decorated with Japanese lanterns and cherry blossoms, by true daughters of Japan, costumes and all. Even the old Japanese custom of sitting on the floor was observed, and guests were seated on cushions.

Lovely Japanese letter openers were presented as favors.

LES CHEFETTES

Delightful in its hospitality was the registration tea of the Les Chefettes Club, in the home of Miss Olive Thomas, Thursday afternoon October the eighth.

Pink and white featured the table decorations. The centerpiece was of pink rose buds and artemisea.

Each guest was given a symbol of the club, which was a small rolling pin with a number on it. The lucky number drew a large rolling pin.

OLYPMIAN COUNCIL

One of the most unusual affairs on the Campus during "tea season" was the Salutato given by the Olympian Council at the home of Miss Dorothy Mann. The true Roma Salutato took place at two-thirty in the morning but the time of this one was moderated to comply better with central customs.

The service table, at which Miss Eva Hiatt and Mrs. Warner Hord presided, had as a center piece a large gold cornucopia, filled to overflowing with fruit and flowers.

The reception rooms were profusely decorated with flowers. In the hall was a typical Roman bench, subsellium.

The program for the afternoon was made up of a violin solo by Miss Rosalie Ray, a reading by Miss Nita Paul McGinley, a piano solo by Miss Helen Long, a reading by Miss Helen Louise Gough, and two selections from popular music sung in Latin by a trio composed of Misses Dovie Lewis, Jessie Newby, and Lila Slagle.

CRITERION BREAKFAST BRIDGE

One of the most ourstanding social affairs of the season was the Criterion Club's breakfast bridge, given in honor of Mrs. M. A. Beeson, the honorary member of the Club. The breakfast bridge was given in the home of Miss Mary Ann Tool from nine until eleven-thirty o'clock.

The tables were decorated with late summer flowers. The club colors of rose and gray were carried out in the china service.

A two course breakfast was served after which the tables were cleared for bridge.

SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE YEAR

CRITERION GARDEN PARTY

Miss Kathtyn English was hostess to the Criterion and Arena clubs Monday evening, October twelfth from seven until eight o'clock. The clubs played a get acquainted game. Following this the Central Trio under the direction of Mr. John Gecks, played several numbers. Miss Mary Ida Burns sang a solo.

TRIUMVIRATE ENTERTAIN BROTHER CLUB

Members of the Triumvirate Club entertained about twenty members of the Senate Club with a weiner roast at Fink Park on Monday evening, October nineteenth. Mr. Loren Brown, Senate sponsor and Miss Mollie Ruth Bottoms, sponsor of the Triumvirates, accompanied the group.

After the vanishing of the weiners and marshmallows, the young people assembled around the campfire and told stories and sang songs. The evening's entertainment closed with a group of games.

HOMECOMING

The Homecoming parade was the first event of importance on the Homecoming program. This was one of the most colorful homecoming processions in the history of the school. Marching through the main business district, the parade was headed by a military color guard and Central band, followed by the pep clubs and floats. The Shakespeare Club took first place, the Tsa Mo Ga's rated second and the Y.W.C.A. third.

SHAKES PEARE CLUB

Marking another day of remembrances, the Shakespeare Club held an open house for its alumnae on Homecoming day, Saturday, October thirty-first. Following the game, the guests assembled at the home of Misses Edna and Wilma Johnson. The appointments and refreshments were in keeping with the spirit of Halloween. Homecoming guests were: Colleen Jim Kivlehen, Meryl Surbeck, Jane Lind, Ruth Stripling, Roberta Anderson, Betty McBrien-Hurt, Pauline Bebout-Williams, Mary Annette Steen, Iris Jenkins Miller, Leta Slagle-South, Heuster Bond Wails, Margaret Douthit, Ella Bell Jones, Babe Inlow-Hamilton, Lucille Smith, Hattie Gray Potter and Elizabeth Jackson.

ALUMNI LUNCHEON

The Alumni Luncheon, held at noon on Homecoming day at the Methodist Church was well atterded and enjoyed by all. Dr. M. A. Beeson welcomed the guests. Miss Precious Miller, speaking for the members of the Alumni Association, answered his welcome.

HOMECOMING PARTY

The closing event of the day was the annual homecoming party held in Wantland Hall. It was said by all to be the best "Homecoming" party in years, for after having defeated the Bison, everyone was in a joyful mood and declared it, "the end of a perfect day." After the grand march, each guest was given confetti which added to the merriment of the evening. Punch was served throughout the evening.

TSA MO GA ENTERTAINS

Homecoming was made complete for the former members of the Tsa Mo Ga Club, Saturday evening, October 31, when they were honored guests at a tea given by the club at the home of Mrs. D. L. Meagher, The house was decorated in the fall motif, using autumn leaves and flowers for the decorations. The lights were shaded to give a Hallowe'en atmosphere. Miss Doris Willis completed the Hallowe'en scene by giving a number of ghosty readings. Tsa was served between the hours of four and six.

TRAINING SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE

The training school of Central State Teachers College held open house on the evening of November 12, sponsored by John T. Butcher and faculty of the training school.

Each department had on display some kind of exhibit typical of its daily work. Miss Alice Green had arranged for the occasion a traveling art exhibit of one hundred contemporary American prints.

The guests filed in, ushered by the pupils of the training school, visited in regular order, the various rooms, and were served refreshments by the home economics department.

SENATE CLUB STEAK FRY

Friday evening, October 23, the Senate club entertained the other three debating clubs in a steak fry about a mile and a half northwest of town. The group left the campus at seven and by moonlight walked over the meadows and climbed fences until they reached the spot where the fry was held. The steaks were already prepared when the group arrived.

Ben C. Did you ever see one of those machines that could tell when a feller is lying? Pump; See one? Good night!! I married one.

Mrs. Johnson: Edna, what do you expect to do when you are married. Gudger will want something to eat three times a day, and you can't cook?

Edna: Don't worry mother. I asked Ralph to get a can opener, so now we won't have any trouble as long as I don't break it, but if I do we'll eat at The College Shop.

This popular group has furnished much of the music for the different school parties this year. All the members are Central students.

This orchestra was organized two years ago and has advertised Central at home and abroad since then. Last year they carried the fame of Central State Teachers College across the waters when they toured Europe playing in many large hotels as well as on ship board in crossing the Atlantic.

This year the orchestra plans to tour the western states on a similar trip.

MODERNIZING MOTHER GOOSE

Jack and Jill went up the hill
To Central State Teachers College,
They stopped first at The College Shop
With the others seeking knowledge.

Little Jack Horner sat in a corner
Eating an Eskimo pie,
While the old woman who lived in a shoe
Bought so many books she didn't know what to do.

These picture book folk are very wise,
They know where to buy books and supplies
Meet their pals and eat their candy,
Between classes, the Shop's most handy.
